Territorial Legislation. [Communicated.]

It is a remarkable coincidence in tion in the past has been so blighted and scarred by a narrow and exceed ingly contracted and selfish idea that all important legislation must be contained within the confines of some certain locality. It seems that in Arizona we have so many statesmen whose brilliant intellect and force of claracter can only be brought into recognition by doing dirty work for some specific locality, thereby, as is evidently expected by them, their immediate constituents will come to their embrace in the future. In this they are wofully mistaken they become politically dead That class of disgraceful characters are never needed except fer dirty work and the general public become disgusted with them, and they thereafter are placed into oblivion. It is to be hoped that our incoming egislature, individually and collect ively, will regard the importance of the entire Territory, and will seek to de equal justice to all alike. There will be nothing gained in and throughout the Territory, and rest assured there will be nothing gained in any particular locality, be it Phenix or elsewhere, by the endeavor to grasp voraciously with uncultured demeanor each and every article and thing within grasp,hungry, emaciated and vicious to a degree that will not admit of friendly recognition or henorable and respectable territorial pride. The legislator, who raises his hand and takes the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and to do equal and exact justice in framing the laws of Arizona, violates his official oath and heaps upon himself the odium of all good citizens everywhere and gether the institution bids fair to be track loses his own self-respect, who fails be obedient to that mandate. He gives no official bond. His compensation is not great. He is supposed to be chosen for his integrity, his superior intelligence, his broad and comprehensive ideas of equity and justice. His keen eye for all classes of citizens-rich and poor; for the varied industries in and throughout the territory-agriculture. mining, stock, etc., etc., for the ap-

We all need the united nelp of onetention; its ruin and mislortune is seen und felt everywhere.

Very respectfully, BRIDLE BLACKBIRD. That Enabling Act.

The following is a copy of the bil drafted in Phenix, which it is proposed to get Congress te pass : An Act granting certain powers to the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Arizona : Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled

SEC. 1. Power is hereby conferred upon the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of arizona to authorize the county of Maricopa in said Territory of commander of Whipple Barracks, went and credit of said County of Maricopa Junction, to meet Col. Queer Cure for Pneumonia.

Attention has been lately directed to he benefit derivable, in cases of pneumenia, where there is great embarrassment of breathing from secumulated secretion in the bronchial tubes, by iuverting the patient, and having him cough violently while in such position. It is easily accomplished by a strong assistant standing on the patient's bed seizing the sick man's ankler, turning him face downward, and then lifting his feet four or five times above the level of the mattress. If the patient, with his face over the edge of the bed and his legs thus held aloft, will cough vigorously two or three times, he will get rid of much expectoration that exhausted efforts at coughing failed to dislodge when not thus aided. Life has been saved by repeated performances of this maneuver in pneumonia accompanied with great cyanosis, due to inundation of the bronchial tubes with mucous secretion. It, of course, will have no effect on the exodus in the vesicles. In a similar way, gravity is of value in emptying the lungs of mucous during etherization .-N. Y. Tribune.

A Worthy Institution

EDITOR JOURNAL-MINER :- Permit me to say that, at the close of the political campaign our citizens spliced in the organization of a lyceum, quite feeble at first, but which has grown to import ant dimensions Old and young, male and female, are all acting interestingly their respective roles. A valuable library has been established, and altoin important and la ting benefit to all concerned, and especially to the rising generation. As much as the importance of Walnut creek has been ignored she stands out now boldly as a candidate for the front rank.
